COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

I have had the opportunity to attend a couple of very interesting and important meetings recently. The first was at Mexico and the program was a presentation of the proposed legislative program of the Maine Municipal Association to the next Maine State Legislature.

The executive secretary of the Maine Municipal Association brought out some of the many areas of proposed legislation such as assessing, highways, health and welfare, collective bargaining and cable television. The association has some very definite legislation on some subjects and in other areas the stand of the association might be dictated by proposed legislation of other groups.

The second meeting was a presentation of some of the legislative changes that the State Department of Health and Welfare would like to have enacted by the next legislature. Some of the possible changes are, doing away with town's 18% share of A.D.C. costs, broadening definitions of persons eligible for categorical assistance, and state aid or training for families where the parents are not separated. These changes are similar to the ones supported by the municipal association in the field of welfare.

If you have ideas on these or other topics that might be considered, you should contact your state representative and state senators. They are very interested in opinions of the people and on several occasions different legislators have requested my opinion on legislation dealing with municipalities.

There will be a public hearing on the classification of the Androscoggin River in Rumford on Monday, Nov. 21, at 1:30 p. m. There are also hearings on other dates for different parts of the river but the one affecting this area will be next Monday.

The Androscoggin will be classified by the next legislature and the hearing will be for the purpose of informing the public of studies made and proposed classification. There are a couple of studies in the town office if anyone would like to see one before the hearing.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY HEARS TALK ON INDIAN RAID

NEXT MEETING JAN. 24

The Bethel Historical Society met Tuesday evening at the Bethel Library with 23 present.

After a brief meeting for routine business Mrs. Bernice Noyes presented an interesting account of the 1701 Indian Raid. She was assisted by Mrs. Agnes Holmes who read biographical details of the earliest settlers of Suddaby Canada.

The December meeting of the Society will be omitted (on Jan. 24 Vice Chairman Dale Thompson will give an account of dowsing and pin mills in this area).

Edmund and two daughters are expected for Health Council (next) on baskets. They may be left at Vance Richardson's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. May will have and Judy were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker and family at Suddaby, Mass.

LIVING NATIVITY SCENE — TRULY A COMMUNITY PROJECT TO BE HELD DEC. 18

Mrs. Irma Thompson was elected chairman for Bethel's Living Nativity Scene, to be presented again this year on the Bethel Common on Dec. 18. Initial plans were made at a well-attended planning committee meeting held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Emily Saunders.

Several committee people have already volunteered their services and are in positions in this united effort. There are several costume makers, artists, bell ringers, shepherds, a property manager, an over-all lighting manager, a publicity manager, and the Town Manager's promise of help with snow removal. The guiding stars will be in place; the kindle animals will be there too, and some angels. This is all in preparation for the scene.

Everyone interested in committee work or desiring to be in the cast should call Mrs. Thompson, preferably on a Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday morning. The cast is still being assembled and more help is needed in the costume and make-up department.

The table and manger used last year is apparently in storage. Anyone knowing of its location is asked to notify Mrs. Thompson.

PRE-SEASON IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT MT. ABRAM

Prospect improvements at Mt. Abram Ski Slopes are interesting to the avid skier and definitely to all skiers very early in the season.

The Cross Bros. owners and managers of Mt. Abram Ski Slopes at Locke Mills, who have proven themselves over the past six skiing seasons to be experts in the art of grooming ski trails, have been improving their area and readying it for the promising ski season ahead.

Over 25 cases of dynamite quote the Cross Bros. has been used to rid several trails of ledges and rocky obstacles. For those who ski from the "top of the mountain" extensive improvements have been made. The unloading zone from the T-Bar 1 is easier and the access trail to the intermediate and Expert Trails has been dynamited, bulldozed, widened and smoothed. The logging traffic on this access trail will not have the hazards it once faced because the ledges have been removed yet the general contour of the trail remains as picturesque and inviting as before.

The famous "Bullwhip Trail" which is over a mile and a half in length (classified as an intermediate to advanced trail) has had several of its sharp curves widened and smoothed. The trail should be more enjoyable to its use especially from the top.

For the convenience of the skier the Cross Bros. have made the unloading zone at the top of the T-Bar 1 new and improved.

NATIONAL COMMANDER OF AMERICAN LEGION ASKS FOR RESPECT OF LAW

American Legion National Commander John E. Davis, Blaine, N. D., told Maine Legionnaires Monday night that the internal struggle for the preservation of the republic is just as real and just as demanding of patriotic citizenship as is the fight for human liberty in South Viet Nam.

Commander Davis said he was called upon by the American Legion to play a leading role in every community where a Legion is located in bringing about a new respect for law and order and a new spirit of respect for the cooperation with all law enforcement officials and agencies who are, in effect, "our front line of defense against crime and corruption, lawlessness and civil disobedience."

"It is conceivable," the Legion Commander said, "that there could be no future unless there be an orderly society — unless there be respect for all our laws — unless there be responsible citizenship among all of our people."

"The danger that confronts us today is a two-edged sword. On the one side we find an alarming upsurge on the part of good, solid citizens which serves as encouragement to the criminal and lawless elements among us to pose an ever greater threat to the safety of both the person and the property of the law abiding. On the other side we find those who would change which law is obeyed and to willfully violate those with which they disagree."

In the latter category Davis placed the draft card burners, those who violate and encourage others to violate the Selective Service Act and those who incite violence and rioting in our streets no matter what the cause and to which they disagree.

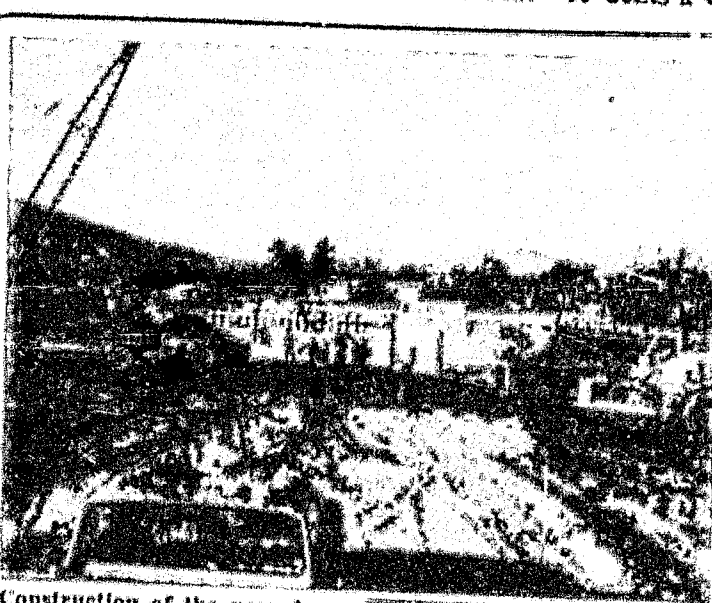

"Our is a society of laws and not of men. If this society is to survive we must reverse this trend quickly and completely. One system, regardless of its merits, for the securing of all grievances and good Americans can tolerate no other methods," he declared.

The Legion soon will have a program for local Post action and I look to the church rates who live in the middle of liberty to show the way of implementation of this project," Commander Davis said.

Lucky hunters this week in Bethel have Ronald Stearns, Guy Parker Jr., Tommy Farnsworth, Jason Smith and Dan Hays.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Williams and Jr. of New City, N. Y., and Mrs. John S. George of Bethel, N. H., have returned to their homes after spending several days with their mother Mrs. Earl Williams in the greatest celebration of the town's history.

They were called last week by the death of their father.

Construction of the new Androscoggin River bridge is moving ahead. Callahan Bros. of Mechanic Falls is the contractor. P. H. Chadbourne Co. of Bethel is the sub-contractor for the approaches and highway work in the project. Plans call for July 1967 completion.

TRANSPORTATION - TRAFFIC IS TOPIC OF PLANNING BOARD MEETING

Transportation facilities available in the town of Bethel and traffic circulation, principally in the village, were the main topics at the meeting of the Bethel Planning Board held Wednesday evening at the Bethel Selectmen's office.

Lewis Lukka of the James W. Sewall Co. of Old Town, presented a preliminary report on these two subjects prepared by his firm. This report is one of a series prepared by the consultant firm as an initial step toward the recommendation of a Comprehensive Town Plan.

Discussed during the meeting were two service tax facilities, railroad and truck transportation that is available in the area.

The history of aviation in the area from 1923 to the present was presented, together with additional plans that could be made relative to the facilities required for greater State and Federal aid for these expansions.

In a discussion of roads and streets it was revealed that a Comprehensive Plan would possibly include that certain local streets would revert to be Town Way and a recommendation that Route 5 would be an Urban area.

Tentative plans might also include streets to connect Paradise Road with 14th Union Street and the Grange Road.

Those present at the session were Mr. Lukka, Mrs. Ruth Carter, Arden, Eileen, Vance, Morris, Howard, Henry, Hastings, Ted, Charles, of the Planning Board; Richard, William, Charles, Howard, Leonard, Brown, and John, of the Union Board; and Arthur, John, Philbrick, of the Maine Department of Transportation; James, Hutchins, of the Bethel Board; and John, Brown, of the Bethel Board of Selectmen.

Mrs. Mac Artrows of Locke Mills was taken to ambulance to Bethel Hospital following a heart attack which she suffered at the Bethel Police Station where she was arrested last night.

CHRISTMAS SEALS —A HOLIDAY CUSTOM OF GREAT VALUE

Holidays abound with special customs—certain habits and observances characteristic of the day and season. A unique and especially rewarding Christmas custom has come to be the use of Christmas Seals.

The Christmas Seal campaign, which began throughout the country on Tuesday, Nov. 15, is a twentieth century tradition, but one which has already become an important part of the Christmastime heritage. Because it supports the broad scale activities of tuberculosis and respiratory disease associations, the custom of using Christmas Seals also has far-reaching, year-round benefits.

Today money contributed to the Christmas Seal Campaign not only fights tuberculosis but other respiratory diseases, too. The sums go for research, medical education, patient services, public education, and many other activities that bring January to December health benefits to millions of people.

Dwight Merrill has returned home from a Portland hospital after a few weeks at the home of Edna Young while their home is being moved from the Grafton Lumber Co. area to South Bethel.

third T-Bar) easier by moving the T-Bar Look-out Building and rearranging the general area there.

Hay, three thousand bales, was placed on strategic and improved areas throughout the entire mountain. Hay, well placed is one of the prime ingredients which goes into the art of pre-season grooming of trails.

Two outstanding offers to the season pass holders will be a special exchange pass program with Sunday River Skiway, and the "photo in plastic" identification ticket. The interchange of passes extends to season pass holders the opportunity of a choice to ski either area during the month of December and after March 15th. Upon the purchase of a season pass a small photo of the person will be encased in a plastic holder. This will make the process of identification of season pass holders easier and will also cut down on time consuming checking. A photo will be taken free of charge or the purchaser may bring a small photo to be used, for the new identification system. Economy minded skiers and their families might like to know that season passes are now on sale at discount prices.

The bell of Vel Gardner Ski School will once again ring loud and clear for those interested in learning the American Skiing Technique. Instruction will be available for the beginner through experts. The Vel Gardner Ski School offers special children's classes on Saturday mornings and ladies' day will be every Tuesday. A men's special class will be available on Sunday afternoon.

FAMILY LIFE CONFERENCE

Following Mrs. Jordan's discussion, the some 150 participants distributed themselves into groups with panels of four to five students, or adults, being charged with questions from the opposite group in an experiment to see if communication could be conducted between them.

The purpose of the conference, as established at the outset, has been to stimulate a freer flow of communication within families in order to strengthen relationships. The planning committee has included several adults interested in the project; representatives from the student bodies of both Gould Academy and Woodstock; and personnel from the Extension Service, with the Bethel Health and Service Council as immediate sponsors, and the administration of Gould Academy providing the meeting facilities, and audio-visual services through the Audio-Visual Club.

A break-down of statistics of attendance finds that 370 persons were registered for at least one of the sessions, including 182 youths and 188 adults. Adults included 55 fathers and 163 mothers, with an additional, approximate number of 29 adults involved as speakers, discussion leaders, etc. who were not registered. Attendance at each meeting has been 162, 263, 123, and 151, for the four sessions.

Mr. Ryder's committee will study the tabulation of evaluation slips distributed to participants Wednesday night, and present an over-all evaluation and recommendations for future sessions.
